

BUSINESS COUNCIL APPOINTS NEW EXECUTIVE

The Business Council of Papua New Guinea announced today, that it had appointed an Executive Officer to its Management Team.

Executive Officer Maryanne McDonald will play an active role in defining and implementing initiatives and strategies, aimed at improving the delivery of service to the Council's members. She will also contribute towards the enhancement of the relationship between the Business Council, Government, the Private Sector, and other international bodies.

Winifred Kamit, President of the Business Council of Papua New Guinea said, "we're delighted to have secured Maryanne's services, as she has the necessary qualifications and experience necessary to greatly assist the Business Council and it's broad spectrum of members ,"

Prior to joining the Business Council, Maryanne was the Chief Executive Officer of the Manufacturers Council of Papua New Guinea, from 1998 until early 2004. During that time Maryanne represented Papua New Guinea at a number of international conferences, and was instrumental in the staging of the Manufacturer of the Year awards, the PNG Made Trade Fair, and the MSG International Shipping Conferences.

Another of Maryanne's major aims will be to increase the membership base of the PNG Business Council. For membership enquiries, Maryanne can be contacted on Ph: 320 0700 Fax: 320 0701 or Mobile: 686 2222
